

PROGRAMME

The programme consists of 30-minute presentations, including time for discussions.

Monday 7 April 2025

- 09:00-09:30 To teach or not to teach: Exploring pedagogical paradigms in public schools /Herner Saeverot
- 09:30-10:00 The emancipation of the school: Time, money and people/ Gert Biesta
- 10:00-10:30 Some remarks on the (De)institutionalisation of schooling as a challenge for educational theory/Johannes Bellmann
- 10:30-11:00 Reflections on public schools through the lens of a teacher and staff member at VilVite Science Center/ Lisa Hasholt Fosse
- 11:00-11:30 What is the status of the school's 'own' concern at the Steiner School?/ Henning Stephan
- 11:30-12:00 Report from Jannike Lyngtun and Helene Torsteinson
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch
- 13:00-13:30 From the perspective of a journalist and former teacher on the school/ Sanna Sarromaa
- 13:30-14:00 Reimagining school practices: Insights from an artist and musician teaching in public schools/ Hanne Maren Meldahl
- 14:00-14:30 The school, persons, and the subject of education/ John Baldacchino via Zoom
- 14:30-15:00 Conversations

Tuesday 8 april 2025

- 09:00-09:30 Democratic education in the Anthropocene: Discussing civil disobedience in class/ Frédérique Brossard Børhaug
- 09:30-10:00 Public schools under pressure: Challenges and solutions/ Andreas Kvåle Myksvoll
- 10:00-10:30 The significance of demanding teaching and classical texts/ Tone Saevi
- 10:30-11:00 Assessment and beyond: Montessori ideas for the schools of tomorrow?/ Roe Lauvås jr.
- 11:00-11:30 Report from Judith Ologi and Helene Torsteinson
- 11:30-12:00 Conversations
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch